The federal Judiciary intends to procure treatment services for federal defendants and offenders using Blanket Purchase Agreements. Solicitations for Blanket Purchase Agreements may be issued for districts in the United States and territories, including Alaska, Hawaii, District of Columbia, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico and U.S. Virgin Islands. Required treatment services may include urine collection, counseling, physical examinations, outpatient and inpatient detoxification, medication, short and long term residential placement, transportation and therapy.

To find out whether a district will issue a solicitation for treatment services, interested treatment providers must contact the Chief Probation or Pretrial Services Officer in their respective district within 30 days from the date of this announcement. Telephone numbers for the Chief Probation and Pretrial Services Officer may be obtained in the Federal Government section of your telephone directory or by using the court locator online at http://www.uscourts.gov/court_locator.aspx

Interested treatment providers must respond timely to solicitation deadlines and clearly show that (1) they can provide services, (2) such services will be provided by certified, licensed professionals with experience in such treatment, and (3) prices of such treatment shall be as low as or lower than those charged to the treatment provider's most favored customer for comparable quantities under similar terms and conditions.
