

REAPPOINTMENT OF INCUMBENT U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

The current term of office of United States Magistrate Judge Matt J. Whitworth, at Kansas City, Missouri, is due to expire January 14, 2018. The United States District Court is required by law to establish a panel of citizens to consider the reappointment of the magistrate judge to a new eight-year term.

The duties of a magistrate judge include the following: (1) conduct of most preliminary proceedings in criminal cases; (2) trial and disposition of misdemeanor cases; (3) conduct of various pretrial matters and evidentiary proceedings on delegation from the judges of the district court; and (4) trial and disposition of civil cases upon consent of the litigants.

Comments from members of the bar and public are invited as to whether the incumbent magistrate judge should be recommended by the panel for reappointment. You may provide general remarks or comment on specific attributes of the incumbent, such as: character, judgment, legal ability, judicial demeanor or temperament, courtesy to litigants, judicial efficiency and timeliness, and commitment to equal justice under the law.
