2. Creditor's Objection to Chapter 13 Plan/Amended Plan. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a creditor's objection to chapter 13 plan/amended plan will be set for hearing. The Court will schedule the hearing and the objector is responsible for promptly serving the hearing notice on all parties not receiving electronic notice. The following factors will determine whether and when the hearing is held:

- a. If an amended plan is filed no later than the seventh (7th) day before the scheduled hearing on the creditor's objection to a previous chapter 13 plan or amended plan, the hearing on the creditor's objection will be cancelled and the creditor's objection deemed moot unless the creditor files a request to hold the hearing on the scheduled date or on a continued date. The creditor's request to hold the hearing on the scheduled date or on a continued date must be filed by the fourth (4th) day before the scheduled hearing on the creditor's objection.

b. If an amended plan is filed after the seventh (7th) day before the scheduled hearing on the creditor's objection to a previous chapter 13 plan/amended plan, the hearing on the creditor's objection will be held unless the creditor files a request to continue the hearing or withdraws the objection in accordance with Local Rules 9060-1 C. or D.

c. When an order denying confirmation pursuant to a trustee's motion is entered and a creditor's objection to a chapter 13 plan or amended plan is pending and scheduled for hearing, the court will reschedule the hearing to a date no sooner than seven (7) days after the deadline for filing an amended plan as specified in the order denying confirmation. The procedures set forth in paragraphs a. and b. above shall apply to the rescheduled hearing.

This General Order is effective for Chapter 13 Plan Objections scheduled for hearing dates of June 21, 2010 and after, and shall remain in effect until further order or notice of this court.
