

Learn more at www.mow.uscourts.gov.

MAGISTRATE JUDGES

The Bell Room Historical Gallery

Charles E. Whittaker Courthouse
400 East Ninth Street
Kansas City, Missouri 64106

The Bell Room Historical Gallery is open to the public free of charge, or you may schedule a group tour by contacting Diana Diaz at (816) 512-5030 or Diana_Diaz@mow.uscourts.gov.

The Exhibit

Located on the second floor of the Charles E. Whittaker Courthouse, the Bell Room Historical Gallery tells the story of the federal court in Western Missouri - the cases, the judges, the people whose lives were shaped by the decisions made here.

Features

The gallery includes:

- ◆ The court's landmark cases from the Greenlease kidnapping to the Hyatt disaster to the trials of Tom Pendergast and Nick Civella.
- ◆ A timeline tracing the types of cases heard by the court since its creation in 1822.
- ◆ Interactive audio-visual units where visitors can take quizzes and watch videos about the court.
- ◆ Information about what it's like to serve on a jury or how to file bankruptcy.

Did You Know?

During the Civil War, future federal judge John Philips led a Union cavalry regiment in the Battle of Westport.

Walt Disney filed for bankruptcy here before he moved to Hollywood to animate his famous mouse.

As a young attorney, future Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall represented the Kansas City plaintiffs suing to integrate the Swope Park swimming pool.

Free agency in Major League Baseball exists today because of a case heard in this court.

Country superstars Minnie Pearl, Roy Acuff and Porter Wagoner all testified in a Western District case involving The Grand Ole Opry trademark.

The federal crimes of pharmacist Robert Courtney may have affected more than 4,200 cancer patients.

More than 1,500 people became United States citizens every year in Western District courthouses.

