Any discovery motion filed without complying with Local Rule 37.1 will be denied. Except in extraordinary circumstances, problems with discovery which are not brought to the Court's attention in time for the opponent to make a proper response and the Court to make an informed ruling before the close of discovery will be waived.

2. Final Discovery Deadline. All pretrial discovery authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall be completed (not simply submitted) on or before __. The affidavit shall include a complete statement of all opinions to be expressed and the basis and reasons therefore, the data or other information considered by the witness in forming the opinions, any exhibits to be used as a summary of or support for the opinions, the qualifications of the witness (including a list of all publications authored by the witness within the preceding ten years), the compensation to be paid for the study and testimony, and a listing of any other cases in which the witness has testified as an expert at trial or by deposition within the preceding four years. Expert witnesses may testify only as to matters contained in the affidavit described above unless leave of Court is granted upon good cause shown.

1. Pretrial Conference. A final pretrial conference in this case will be held at p.m. on _____, 2013, via telephone conference.* The call shall be initiated by plaintiff's counsel. The Court's telephone number is 816-512-5602. Lead trial counsel shall participate in this conference. The agenda for this conference will include:

* In some instances, the Court may require counsel to appear in person for the pretrial conference.

- b. Identification of legal and factual issues to be tried;
- c. Disposition of pending motions;
- d. Discussion of any legal questions which must be resolved prior to trial;
- e. Discussion of any suggestions by counsel to simplify and expedite the trial; and
- f. Discussion of the status and likely success of settlement negotiations.

2. Pretrial Filings. To improve the quality of trial through more thorough preparation, the attorneys will meet and confer at least three (3) days prior to the deadlines contained in paragraphs c, d, e and f below to identify what is truly in dispute and to facilitate the admission of uncontroverted evidence.

- a. Motions in limine. Twenty-one (21) days prior to the pretrial conference, motions in limine shall be filed. Responses to motions in limine shall be filed at least fourteen (14) days prior to the pretrial conference.
- b. Deposition Designations. Fourteen (14) days prior to the pretrial conference, each party asserting claims for relief (plaintiff, third-party plaintiff, counterclaiming defendant, etc.) or asserting an affirmative claim shall file and serve a designation, by page and line number, of any deposition testimony to be offered in evidence as a part of that party's case.

Seven (7) days prior to the pretrial conference, each party defending against an affirmative claim for relief shall file and serve:

- i. Any objections to proposed deposition testimony designated by any other party;
- ii. A designation, by page and line number, of any deposition testimony to be offered as cross-examination to deposition testimony designated by other parties; and
- iii. A designation, by page and line number, of any deposition testimony to be offered in evidence as part of that party's case-in-chief in connection with such defense.

On or before the date of the pretrial conference, each party shall serve, file and deliver to all other parties its objections to any deposition testimony designated pursuant to subparagraphs ii. and iii. above.

- c. Stipulation of Uncontroverted Facts. Seven (7) days prior to the pretrial conference, stipulation of uncontroverted facts shall be filed. If no stipulated facts can be agreed upon, including facts related to the Court's subject matter jurisdiction, the parties shall file a joint statement to that effect. Notwithstanding the fact that the time for discovery will have closed, a request to stipulate, if preserved in the record, will constitute a request for admission under Rule 36 and failure to stipulate may be subject to sanctions under Rule 37(c).
- d. Stipulation as to the Admissibility of Evidence. Seven (7) days prior to the pretrial conference, stipulation as to the admissibility of evidence shall be filed when the identification and foundation of the exhibit is not contested. Notwithstanding the fact that the time for discovery will have closed, a request to stipulate, if preserved in the record, will constitute a request for admission under Rule 36 and failure to stipulate may be subject to sanctions under Rule 37(c).
- e. Witness Lists. Seven (7) days prior to the pretrial conference, pursuant to Local Rule 39.1, witness lists shall be filed. Each party shall file and serve a list of all witnesses who may be called at trial. No supplemental or amended witness lists will be allowed without leave of Court and for good cause.
- f. Exhibit Lists. Seven (7) days prior to the pretrial conference, pursuant to Local Rule 39.1, exhibit lists shall be filed. Each party will file and serve a list of all exhibits which may be offered at trial. Additionally, each party shall make its exhibits available for inspection by the other parties prior to the pretrial conference. The parties shall also prepare and provide to the courtroom deputy an exhibit index, with said index being prepared on a form provided by the clerk's office. Each exhibit will be designated as either "Plaintiff's" or "Defendant's." Plaintiff shall number their exhibits beginning with the number one. Defendant shall number their exhibits beginning with the number 501. If an exhibit consists of more than one (1) page or part, the number of pages or parts shall be included in the description on the exhibit index. It is not necessary to list exhibits to be used only for impeachment or rebuttal purposes. Failure to list an exhibit or to disclose an exhibit to adverse counsel as required by this order will result, except upon a showing of good cause, in the non-admissibility of the exhibit into evidence at the trial. No supplemental or amended list of exhibits will be allowed without leave of Court and for good cause.

- g. Remaining Claims. Seven (7) days prior to the pretrial conference, each party shall file a schedule of claims, counterclaims and affirmative defenses that remain outstanding, along with the elements of each claim, citing authority for such elements.

issues, a general statement of the evidence to be offered, and a statement of any evidentiary or procedural problem expected to arise, with citations of authority.

3. Trial Procedure. The Court will place time limits on opening statements and direct and cross-examination of all witnesses. You should be prepared to support your representations as to the length of trial.
