RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES AGREEMENT BETWEEN CHAPTER 7 DEBTORS AND THEIR ATTORNEYS

It is important for persons who file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case to understand their rights and responsibilities. It is also important for them to know what their attorneys' responsibilities are and the necessity of communicating openly with their attorneys to make the case successful. Attorneys' clients also are entitled to expect certain services to be performed by their attorneys. In order to assure that clients and their attorneys understand their rights and responsibilities in the bankruptcy process, the following Rights and Responsibilities have been adopted by the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Missouri. The signatures below indicate that the responsibilities outlined in the agreement have been accepted by the Clients and their attorneys. Nothing in this agreement is intended to modify, enlarge or abridge the rights and responsibilities of a "debt relief agency," as that term is defined and used in 11 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, any attorney retained to represent you in a Chapter 7 case is responsible for representing you on all matters arising in the case unless otherwise agreed as to adversary proceedings and conversions to another Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. The attorney is not, however, obligated to represent you in an appeal to another Court. The attorney may not withdraw from a bankruptcy case in this District unless (a) the attorney and you agree to the attorney's withdrawal and another attorney enters the case on your behalf, or (b) the case is converted to another Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code; or (c) the Court, after notice and a hearing, approves an attorney's motion for withdrawal or substitution of attorneys. When appropriate, the attorney may apply to the Court for compensation that is additional to the maximum initial fees set out in this agreement.

I. BEFORE THE CASE IS FILED, YOU AGREE TO TIMELY:

1. Discuss with your attorney your goals in filing the case.
2. Cooperate with your attorney in preparing all required bankruptcy papers and documents, thoroughly reviewing drafts of documents, and advising your attorney of corrections needed.

3. Provide your attorney with all documentation he or she requests, including but not limited to accurate copies of the following documents:
  - a. Certificate of Credit Counseling, together with the debt repayment plan, if any, prepared by the nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency that provided individual counseling services to you prior to bankruptcy.
  - b. Proof of income you received from all sources in the 6-month period before your case was filed. Some examples include paycheck stubs, Social Security statements, worker's compensation payments, income from rental property, pensions, disability payments, self-employment income, child and spousal support, and other payments. If you are self-employed or own a business, you should provide report(s) disclosing monthly income and expenses for the 6-month period before the case was filed.
  - c. Federal and state income tax returns, or transcripts of returns, for the most recently ended tax year, as well as any other returns requested by your attorney.
  - d. Proof of your identity and Social Security number. Some examples are your driver's license, passport, or other document containing your photograph.
  - e. A record of your interest, if any, in an educational individual retirement account or a qualified State tuition program.
  - f. The name, address and telephone number of any person or state agency to whom you owe back child or spousal support or make current child or spousal support payments. Include all supporting documents for the payments. Some examples of supporting documents are a court order, a declaration of voluntary support payments, a separation agreement, a divorce decree, and a property settlement agreement.
  - g. Any insurance policies requested by your attorney.
  - h. Documents relating to any inheritance to which you are entitled.
  - i. Documents relating to any legal action in which you are a party.
