

Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Missouri

Rule 2091-1. Attorneys - Withdrawal and Substitution

A. Withdrawal. An attorney of record may withdraw only by Court permission, by an order entered after service of notice of withdrawal on the client, other counsel of record, the trustee, if any, and the United States Trustee. An order will not be entered until new counsel enters an appearance, except for good cause.

B. Substitution. An attorney of record may file a notice of substitution of counsel if new counsel is employed in the same law firm as the attorney of record.
