

Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Missouri

Rule 6007-1. Abandonment or Disposition of Property

The § 341 notice shall include notice that at the meeting of creditors a trustee may announce the intent to abandon specific property if it is burdensome or inconsequential to the estate. Objections to abandonment must be filed and served on the trustee within 14 days after the meeting at which the property is proposed to be abandoned.
